Central Catholic

FORT
IND.

DEDICATION

In the few years since Bishop Pursley has become the Bishop of Fort Wayne, the quality of his eloquence and the wisdom and vigor of his leadership have won the deep respect of everyone who knows him. The dignity and the warmth of the portrait on the opposite page accurately depict the quality of human understanding, the great art of the government of men, that so well describes our Bishop.

It is a human thing to delight in offering appreciation and esteem. For this reason, and because we (at least the Seniors) may never have the opportunity again, it is a real pleasure for us, the students of Central Catholic High School, to dedicate this 1959 issue of the Echo to Bishop Pursley.

The

"It is the Vocation and Ambition of Every Christian to Echo Christ"

The crest or seal that you see on the cover of this book was designed by this year's Echo staff for this year's book. Within the circle of the school title, it is composed of two elements, the motto "Resonare Christum", and the symbols taken principally from the front of our building.

The rampart—wall (Fort Wayne) and the statue of Christ symbolize our school. The lamp of learning, the Cross and the American Flag depict elements in a Catholic education.

The Latin motto means "To echo Christ", and is taken from the famous words of St. Paulinus that "it is the ambition and vocation of every Christian to echo Christ."

Because this Latin motto includes the title of our yearbook, and at the same time reflects the basic aims of a Catholic school, the crest on the cover is the symbol of the theme you will find explained and illustrated on the division pages—

We learn through our senses. The words of the teacher, the printed page find their echo in the idea born in our minds. But learning is not just a matter of words and ideas. It is a much more personal thing. To the extent that our teachers are Christ-like, in the measure in which we are receptive and docile to the impulses of the Holy Ghost, the Christ-image is formed in us and the words of St. Paulinus in our motto are verified—that we become a recognizable example of the Christian personality, a personal echo of Jesus Christ.

THE FULL LIFE

We students know Father Lester from our frequent contacts with him in or near the first floor office, and from his words over the P.A. We know that Father is the Principal of our high school. We may also know that he is our athletic director, an assignment which is normally considered full time. Most of us probably do not realize that Father is also responsible, as diocesan Superintendent of Schools, for education at every level throughout the diocese of Fort Wayne. If we know Father Lester by his geniality and interest in ourselves, this schedule of responsibility tells us of his total devotion, without which all this would not be possible.

We welcomed a new assistant principal this year in Sister Marie Helen. Sister was already known to the faculty and to many of the students by her smile and friendly ways, having come to C.C. in 1957 after six years at Clarksville Providence High School, where she was the first principal. In one year Sister has clearly demonstrated that her bent for efficiency and organization is not being wasted here at C.C. Sister Marie Helen, we hope you will be with us for many years to come.

THROUGH MUCH DETAIL, CONSTANT DEVOTION

Sister Bonosa's work is mainly secretarial—the details of records, averages, attendance. Because Sister is religious, she brings to these tasks the same devotion she would bring to caring for the sick, or handling sacred vessels in a sacristy. In the long run, this is what makes the difference in a Catholic school.

We think we have money problems—tuition, fees, graduation. Monsignor Feltes is responsible for the financing of the entire operation of C.C. from September thru June. Since this is essential to our Catholic education, we here express our gratitude to Monsignor Feltes.

OUR SOULS

AND SKILLS

Members of our English department take time out to listen to some of Shakespeare's well-known plays. Mr. Fink puts the first record, Macbeth, on the machine while Sisters Mary Neil, Mary Denise, Madeline, and Mary Loretta look over the other selections.

LANGUAGE... EXPRESSION...

John Cook leads the class in a discussion in what seems to be an amusing selection from their third-year literature book.

Sarah Dillon points out the heart of the problem to Mr. Ort. Gerald Kline, Ria Lisman, Ken Shattuck, Steve Stronczek and Jeanette Hipkind seem to have the same problem.

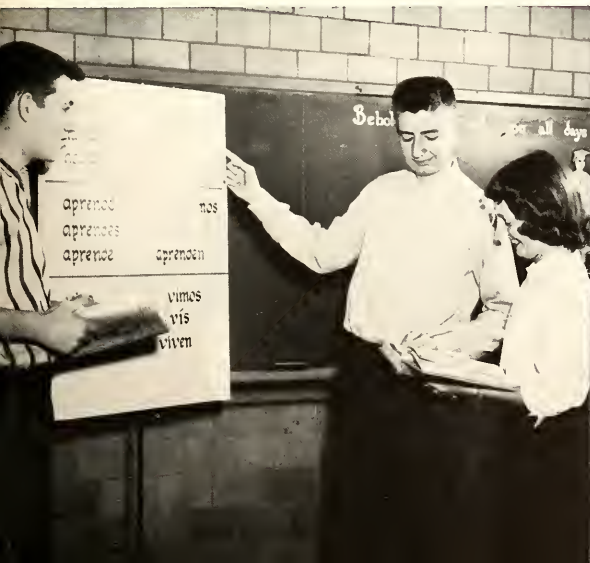

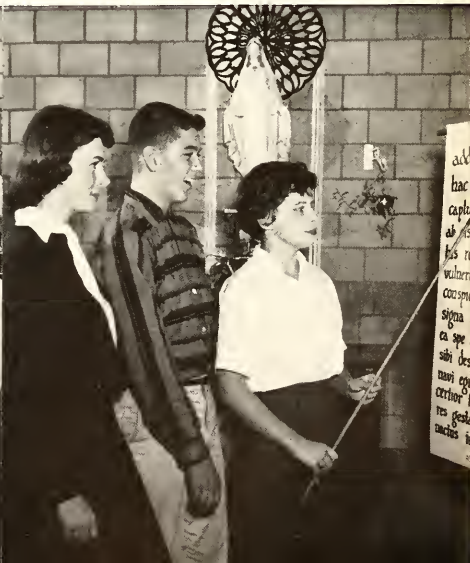

Sisters Virginia Eileen, Ann Louise, Mary Austin, and Miss Hasley discuss some of the means to create a greater interest in the languages offered by our capable foreign language department.

COMMUNICATION... UNDERSTANDING

MEASURING MATTE

. MATHEMATICS

Sisters Philomene Marie, Mary Christine, Francis Elise like teaching history, but the joy here expressed looks more like Friday afternoon.

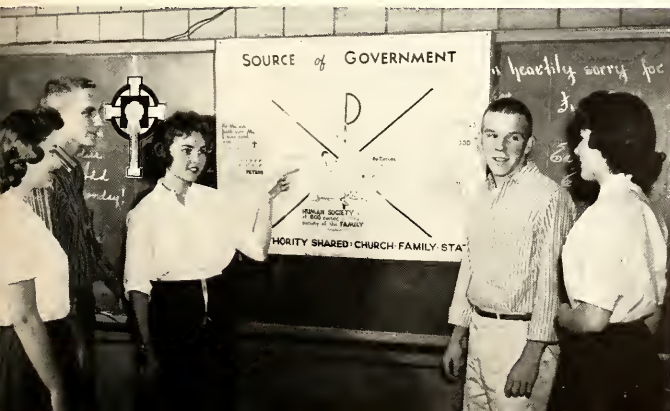

Sister Marie Angele, Sister Hortulana, Mr. Daniel, and Mr. Merki outline the procedure which they will follow in their respective courses.

... AND PRESENT

SCIENCES

SCIENCE— EXPLORING

Jim DeBender weighs the needed amount of copper sulfate; Robert Snow runs an experimental filter; and Sister Lucy watches Richard Wagoner make a glass bend to be used in a future experiment.

GOD'S WORLD

HOME EC.—COMMERCIAL

TO THE FUTURE: IN THE

WORLD AND AT HOME

High School graduation is the major step, the biggest change in our lives so far. In America this is the real "coming of age", because the word "teenager" to most people is synonymous with "high school student." Now we are suddenly adults. Life looks terribly challenging. We can meet the challenge by realizing the true source of strength within us. Our baptism entitles us to Christ—our education has created an awareness of His presence. This is the reassuring Voice, the silent Inspiration, the Echo in our hearts that overcomes the world.

SCHOLARLY

By being hard workers not only in activities but especially in their studies, Mary Ann Jackson and Mike Gatton were chosen "Most Scholarly".

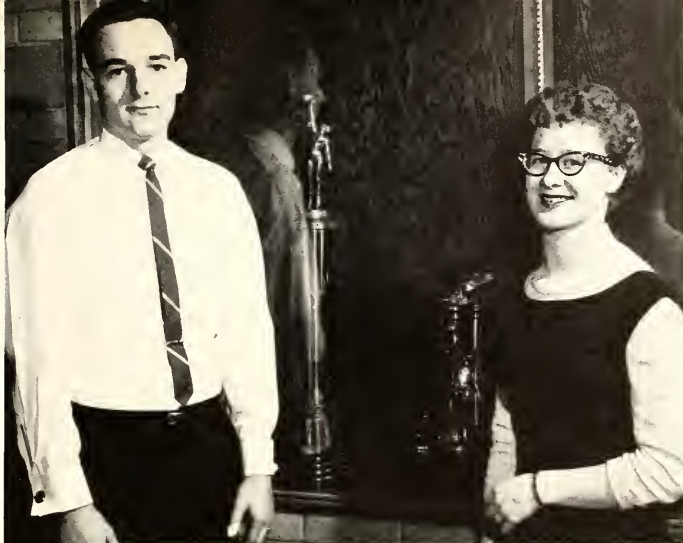

OUTSTANDING 59'ers

COURTEOUS

HOW AND WHAT TO DO WHEN—has been displayed often during their years as C.C.'ers by our two courteous Seniors, Sandy Franks, "Most Ladylike" and Dave Paliganoff, "Most Gentlemanly".

ATHLETIC

May Muldoon, active in the GAA, and Tim Walsh, an outstanding football and basketball player, do a fine job representing the '59 class as "Most Athletic".

FRIENDLY

Cindy Hall and John Sorg were chosen "Most Friendly" after four years of cheery smiles and hellos to all their classmates, whether at school or not.

The Seniors of '59 agree that Mary Pat Hilt and John Snyder deserve the title, "Most Co-operative". They have been leaders in many of the organizations of C.C., doing their best to promote the general welfare of the school.

Cynthia Hall, President, Timothy Walsh, Treasurer, Joyce Gerardot, Secretary and Michael Gatton, Vice-President.

WITHOUT FEAR

With prophecies of doom sounding in our ears, we face the future unafraid. "Blessed is the man who builds his house upon a rock." Our foundation, the spiritual and intellectual guidance of the past four years and our trust in the loving Providence of Almighty God, enable us to look to the future without fear.

It was a memorable evening as Sandy Franks reigned over the Senior Prom. Her court was, clockwise, Julie Osterman, Margaret Crisman, Nanette Forrest, Mary Kay Brink, Joyce Gerardot and Cindy Hall.

Activities and clubs are the "extras" in school life. We need these because we are more than just a mind, just as education is more than information, words and books. As part of our education, we carry out through organization and action, what we learn in theory in the classroom. This helps us to grow and helps to mature the Christ-image in us. And this, in turn, enables us to be what we are in fact by our christian vocation, the good echo of Christ, in every place, throughout our lives.

ESSENTIAL SERVICE

These two organizations have this much in common, that they render much silent service, each in its own way. The library certainly is essential to the basic purpose of the school. These students therefore offer a direct assist to learning. The art club although differently, also enters into the essential life of the school by illustrating religious, scholastic, and athletic activities with posters and bulletin board displays.

These people helped to promote a winning football season. Art Club members, with Sister Francis Mary are Mary Ann Weber, Larry Landstoffer, and Richard Sarrazin.

TO LIGHT A CANDLE

The letters Y.C.S. stand for the name of an international movement known as Young Christian Students. This is the school version of a movement called Young Christian Workers started by a Belgian priest about thirty years ago in Europe. These organizations attempt to put into practice what was recommended by Pope Pius XI—that christians be really christian—that they examine and discuss ways in which a catholic can be a leaven in society—that we might be what Christ intends us to be—"The salt of the earth and the light of the world". This is something like Father Keller's Christophers—"light one candle rather than curse the darkness".

The Living Rosary is Catholic Action on the part of C.C. students. It is an annual event held during Catholic Youth Week, sponsored jointly by the spiritual organizations of the school.

TO THE WORD

C. C.'s school paper, The SHAMROCK, has taken this, the motto of the Catholic Press, as its own.

The SHAMROCK is a record, a history of C.C. It provides for the students practical, religious, and humorous views of the news.

AT HIGH SPEEDS

EVERYONE'S CONCERN

In the age of the nuclear cold war, the high school scientist has become everyone's concern. The high school science teacher burns the late hour oil in order to provide the student with greater stimulus and more advanced material than the teacher had when he or she was in high school. And nowhere else in the curriculum is there as much assurance that the better students will go on for higher training and more advanced studies.

Ann Miller makes much of two and belittles its square root. We would need her commentary to be able to follow.

MATH FOR TODAY

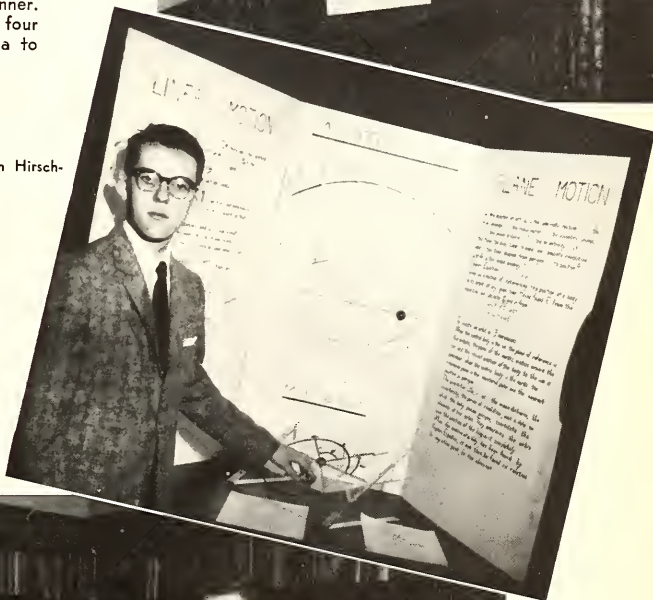

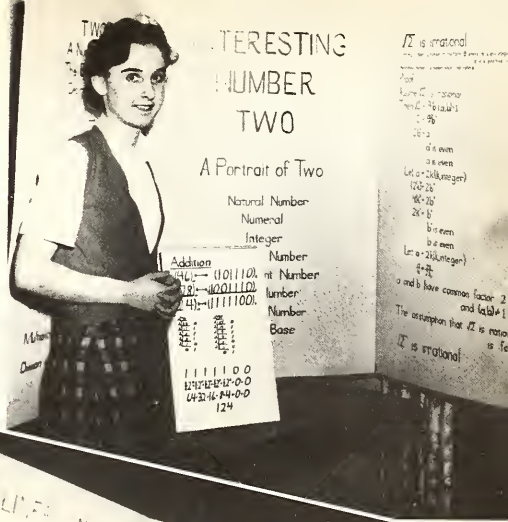

Modern physics involves math at every point. Force and movement must be measured to be controlled and directed. The Math Club promotes interest in mathematical studies aside from the regular class program. This is a highly select group. Of the nine students in the picture above, three were finalists this year in the National Merit Scholarship Program (Dan Desmonds, Ed Foster and Janice Ledden); that is, they belong to a group representing about $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of the nation's qualified seniors who entered. One of these (Dan Desmonds) is a National Merit Winner. Another (Ed Foster) won the provincial four year scholarship for the State of Indiana to the Catholic University.

THE ESSENTIAL MARK

A Catholic high school's purpose is education, education of the whole man. If you read the explanation of our cover motto on page 7, you will know that a human being is simply not a Christian, unless he loves the souls for whom Christ died. In fact, we are not even completely human, if we do not wish to share our many blessings with those in dire need of them. For this reason, mission activities are an essential part of a Catholic school. The students in the above pictures did the bulk of the work involved in this year's mission activities. We hope that their zeal and cooperation represent every member of the student body.

CHAPEL SERVERS

THE GREATEST SERVICE

Pope Pius XII said "it is the highest office and chief dignity of the baptized Christian to offer the Holy Sacrifice with the priest." No one does this in a more perfect manner than he who serves at the altar, waiting, as it were, on Christ Himself.

The Seniors in this picture represent all of our undergraduate servers, as well as themselves. None of these boys had the opportunity to serve regularly at the chapel, but the fact that they were able and available, makes this a select group. We think you will agree.

MACDOUGAL MEMORIAL CHAPEL

THE WORKS OF THE SPIRIT

The Student Spiritual Council is just what its name implies, a clearing house and a well-spring for spiritual activities. It sponsors several assemblies during the year, which highlight different spiritual problems and projects. At the beginning of this year we were introduced to the value of student expression in classroom discussions of spiritual subjects. The Living Rosary, in October, was an SSC project. And, in fact, the SSC is the parent organization of all the other spiritual organizations at C.C.

CHAPEL CHOIR

L. to R. Carolyn Christman, Carolyn Wehrle, Julia Pendergast, Margaret Crisman. These four girls, all Seniors, have been singing at a daily week-day Mass in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for the last couple of years. This represents an accumulation of merit in the eyes of God and men.

FIGHTING 69TH OFFICERS

THE FIGHTING 69TH

On this page, the Echo's face is really red. The Fighting 69th put on two of the outstanding assemblies of the year; they should be represented here in pictures and they are not; we goofed. You will recall them: the program dramatizing Our Lady's appearances at Lourdes and Fatima, and the panel of "old grads" who came back to discuss with us what our attitudes toward the future should be. For these especially, and for the program promoting greater purity of life, the principal aim of this organization, we are grateful to the Fighting 69th.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

FRENCH CLUB

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish Club officers, Bob Kohne, V. Pres., Emelia Rodriguez, Pres., Tom Getz, Treas., and Mary Helen Otte, Sec., are looking for ideas for activities for their first Spanish Club meeting of the year.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. The requirements for membership are a scholastic average placing the boy or girl in the upper third of his or her class, a valuable and notable contribution to one of the school's publications, and approval by the national office upon recommendation of the publication faculty sponsor.

Hidden behind the words "valuable and notable contribution" are the hundreds of hours of free time sacrificed for deadlines, countless tasks carried through to a finish, endless lists checked and re-checked. You can be sure that this year's Shamrock and Echo would not have been as attractive and punctual as they have been, without these fourteen people.

THE CIVICS CLUB OFFICERS

The Civics Club, whose officers you see below, have been instrumental this year in providing minor conveniences for faculty members and homerooms. They also inaugurated a highly successful program of co-operation with downtown stores this year, with better student conduct as the aim. They are, left to right, Jim Kelker, Eleanor Junk, Regina Jacquay, Tom Finan, treas., Mary Kay Brink, vice-pres., Larry Shubnell, pres., Mr. Daniel, moderator, Phil Hartzog, sec., Mike Thompson, Steve Becker and John Snyder.

Sandy Franks, Vice-President, Annmarie Moynahan, Secretary, Rita Lauer, President, and Janice Pepe, Treasurer, are officers of CC's Junior Red Cross.

Deep concentration is one of the requirements of membership in the Chess Club. The members are: seated; J. Hirschfelder, M. Osburn, J. DeVinney., Pres., D. Hedeem, and G. Dykhuizen. Standing; J. Griffin, Sec., D. Sorg, K. Connell, J. Eggers, J. Foster, Mr. Fink, Advisor, J. Koorsen, W. Kassen.

THIS IS THE STOREY

Since 1958 was the centennial year of the apparition of Our Lady to Saint Bernadette at Lourdes, the Central Catholic Dramatics Club presented "The Song of Bernadette", under the direction of Mr. Robert Storey. For the first time in eight years, the two major plays were put on in our own gymnasium.

On the 1st and 2nd of May, the Senior class presented the well-known Broadway production, "I remember Mama." Anyone who saw these two plays will readily agree that this was a successful year in dramatics at C.C.

Competitive high school athletics are an established item in American life. The average person reads at least thirty times as much newspaper copy about our teams as he does about our school. With this kind of publicity, we need not only to put our best foot forward; we need to be everything that Christ would be, were He a modern teen-aged youth or high school athlete. Whether we are in the stands or playing on the team, this is a magnificent opportunity to be a faithful echo of Christ in American life.

Some stalwart Seniors line up in front of an all Senior backfield (to include the much injured Dave Schaab, whom we missed). L to R, front, G. Roth, J. Eifrid, J. Caruso, M. Ternet, J. Delaney, J. Newport and D. Alter. The backs are F. Lombardo, D. Schaab, T. Walsh and J. Sorg.

ANOTHER GOOD ONE

For head coach Walter Bartkiewicz's second year at C.C. we had another good team, another winning season. Last year some people said Walt inherited a winner. This year everyone knew the line would be the big question mark. And what was the answer? Five of our linemen (Brodrick, Goodman, Smith, Poynter, Roth) made All-City. This line and our deluxe backfield, led by All-City Seniors Walsh, Lombardo and Sorg, and Carcione, plowed through six opponents without a loss until a bad evening and some overdue mistakes cost us the city title when North beat us on a fumble. Give Coach Jehl a big assist on this year's team and real credit to Coach Coonan and Coach Hicks for their help. See you in September!

Next August the coaching staff has its work cut out for it. Of these eleven first string players, only LeRoy Carcione is returning. Last year the line had to be rebuilt. Next year, with plenty of undergraduate talent available, there will be practically no established stars and much scrambling for first team assignments. The Class of 1959 can justly be proud of its athletes!

Of the line (above) we can say that every one of these boys did well, and all looked great at times. George Roth, always with great potential, finally came into his own in the Central Game with two leaping pass-snags that kept us alive in the city race. Dick Poynter recovered key fumbles in at least two games (especially at St. Joe) and played savage football most of the time. Bill Kestly far exceeded expectations, made many important defensive plays. Mike Goodman, Jack Smith and Mike Brodrick were simply the best at their positions in the City, (first team, All-City). Goodman and Smith were rocks in the middle of the line all season. Brodrick, with his great strength and agility, was consistently effective, and almost personally kept us in the North game until the final gun. Mike Russo, a fine pass-receiver, played a cagey game of defense at the left wing spot, came close to helping us pull the North game out in the final minutes.

Above right; these four backs represent, for the weight they carry, talent to burn. All four, with adequate poundage, are college calibre. All three seniors pictured made the All-City Team and Leroy missed out, we feel, because he was alternating at Left Half with John Sorg, who played his greatest game in the finale against South, clinching his berth on the All-City Squad. Tim Walsh, the "take-charge" man on both our football and basketball teams, is a good runner and place kicker, a fine passer and a signal-caller to satisfy any coach. Frank Lombardo, first unanimous all-city choice at C.C. in several years, is perhaps our best half-back since the 1950-1951 era.

The official title of this picture is the Reserve Football Squad. However, if you scan the group above, you will find at least eight or nine faces, riding on shoulders that will carry a large share of our athletic hopes for next year. The present Sophomore class, like the class of '59, shows promise of great things to come in several sports. A number of the boys in the above picture played important roles in several varsity victories this year. As you noted if you read the copy on the opposite page, almost the entire first string football team will require replacements from up and coming underclassmen. And we are confident they can do it.

They said last year that we would never replace Hartman and Wickliffe. Mike Brodrick brought his speed and aggressiveness up from a full-back spot and made us forget last year. Dick Poynter shifted in from the end position and did a fine job at right tackle. This was the heart of our line-rebuilding job this year. Hope we do as well next year.

Russo snatches a long pass from the arms of a Central defender in a vital play of the final touchdown drive.

WE COULDN'T BE PROUDER

This was a major year in basketball. The start was slow, but when we beat South Bend Washington and then Central, everyone knew the possibilities were great. With the schedule rebuilding that has been going on for several years, this was the toughest group of teams we have ever faced—and we won two-thirds of our games. Our top scorer and rebounder this year was a Junior, so, in one respect, this year was something of a preparation for next. The spirit was wonderful. The team play was outstanding, especially against Central in December, against a great Columbia City team, and in the sectional. We couldn't be prouder.

Although they are not the owners of an impressive record, the reserve team has battled fiercely many of the best reserve teams in the state. Mr. Merki has done a fine job with the boys in addition to his heavy schedule of classes. These are the boys upon whose shoulders rest the hopes of C.C. teams for the next two years. Seated, Coach Don Merki, J. Zuber, S. King, B. Mosshammon, M. Pressler, mgr., M. Hartzog; standing are B. O'Reilly, M. Foster, J. Taylor, F. Morel, F. Mueller.

Our Varsity Cheerleaders kept alive the interest during our lively pep sessions this year, as well as organizing the C.C. sympathizers at the games. These girls deserve a lot of credit for letting the team know that we were behind them every step of the way. The Aerial Exhibitionists in the rear are Judy Filus and Carol Gitter, while the cheerful front line consists of Barb Brooks, Sandy Franks, and Marg Crisman.

Our Freshman basketball team had an excellent record this year, in spite of coming up against such teams as Central and a really spirited Luers five. We extend a wish of good luck to Coach Hicks, who leaves us this year to accept a new position. First Row, Coach Bill Hicks, B. Werhle, P. O'Reilly, P. Kelley, S. Meier, J. Poiry, S. Core, M. Lenz; Second Row, M. Bubbs, S. Parrot, M. Lotti, D. Schenkel, S. App, J. Dullaghan, and Quandt.

The energetic Reserve Cheerleaders kept the spirits running high during the preliminary games throughout the year. Shown here in a typical pose they are: Sharon Lauer, Rita Jansen, and Sharon Illies, with a group of unidentified rooters in the background.

Much credit for our team's success should go to the student managers, who not only kept the equipment in order but also cared for the court floor in some tight circumstances. Grouped about Coach Terry Coonan are R. Resac, T. Hartzog, and P. Dinklage.

SPORTS FOR EVERYONE

Under the leadership of Miss Julia Heighway, the G.A.A. has flourished in its years at C.C. This organization sponsors inter-homeroom basketball games, hikes, tumbling, and many other things. As an incentive to the girls, awards of triangles, numerals, and letters are given at the end of the year.

Brodrick put the shot this year, but not here!

DeVinney is in the lead, with Parnin and Winans close behind.

The wrestling squad: Row one: J. Schreiber, S. Ream, J. Yerrick, T. Sherbondy, S. Mettler, J. Winans. Row two: J. Snyder, J. Delaney, S. Feder-spiel, J. Smith, J. Guthier, D. Ludwig. Looks like Jim has the upper hand in this scene from one of our varsity mat matches.

Our personalities bear the imprint of all the myriad influences to which we are subject—first of all our home and parents, and then our school, companions and so on. For the four years we spend at C.C., in this formative period of our adolescence, we are a tremendous influence on one another. This is a major part of our vocation now as students, to help each other forward, to be, for each other, the personal echo of Christ in the corridors and locker rooms, at ball games, on dates and social events.

Q

Electricity

Reddy says: "I&M electric rates have never been increased. If your electric bill is higher, it's because you're using electricity to take over so many more of your household tasks. Actually, the more you use each month, the less you pay per kilowatthour. Living better electrically costs so little, yet means so much!"
